Patrons' Message & Contact Directory

When the page on the calendar of the 2023 new Year was turned, the Committee was already busily organising this year's Show. There is always so much to plan. The contributions from our sponsors are very much appreciated and vital to help make this event come together. Volunteers leading up to and during the Show weekend are also very important and this event would not be possible without this group. It is with sincere hope for good weather and for once again seeing the huge crowd attending to enjoy what the district has on display. Thank you to the exhibitors for your entries and sharing what you do best, with the community. it is everyone's input that makes the Mt Larcom Show one of the best in regional Queensland.
